

FDA Registered Facility

J-Pac is registered with the FDA. This registration means that our quality system is regulated by law and undergoes an FDA audit to compliance to the law every 24 months.

The FDA does not issue certificates and requires companies to not imply they have a certificate of compliance.

Thus, this document in no way is presented as a certificate and is intended to provide the relevant information regarding FDA registration, which can be confirmed on their web site.

Registration # 1221051 Compliance to 21 CFR part 820 Audit: 1 Per 24 month period.
